

Are and Our

The words are and our sound very similar but have different meanings.

The word are is a form of the verb, to be.

examples: We are ready to clean the car.

Are you going to wax the car too?

The word our means "belonging to us."

examples: My brother and I washed our car.

Our clothes were soaking wet.

Write the word are or our in each blank to correctly complete the sentence.

1. Daryl and I _____ going to the shopping mall.
2. _____ house has a pool in the backyard.
3. Mattea and I will paint _____ bedroom.
4. Gabriel and Elizabeth _____ jumping on the couch.
5. Now they _____ eating popcorn.
6. We both celebrate _____ birthdays in June.
7. We haven't finished eating _____ lunches yet.
8. _____ you the youngest child in your family?
9. We silenced _____ phones at the movie theater.
10. Where in the world _____ you hiding?

ANSWER KEY

Are and Our

The words are and our sound very similar but have different meanings.

The word are is a form of the verb, to be.

examples: We are ready to clean the car.

Are you going to wax the car too?

The word our means "belonging to us."

examples: My brother and I washed our car.

Our clothes were soaking wet.

Write the word are or our in each blank to correctly complete the sentence.

1. Daryl and I are going to the shopping mall.
2. Our house has a pool in the backyard.
3. Mattea and I will paint our bedroom.
4. Gabriel and Elizabeth are jumping on the couch.
5. Now they are eating popcorn.
6. We both celebrate our birthdays in June.
7. We haven't finished eating our lunches yet.
8. Are you the youngest child in your family?
9. We silenced our phones at the movie theater.
10. Where in the world are you hiding?