

Regional Flag

As the American nation developed, the North and the South each developed their distinct economies, cultures, and approaches to governing. Both regions were proud of who they were and what they stood for. Create a flag that represents your region — the North or the South. Consider images, shapes, symbols, and color as you come up with your design.

